Forest Park, Welcome to 2019. Hard to believe we are starting a new year already. It seemed like only yesterday we were counting down to the new millennium and wondering about y2k. The list above is from an online article giving ideas to help individuals create new and healthy habits in their lifestyle. I thought this short list of ideas was a manageable way to help strengthen my daily life. Go to www.lifetothefullest.abbott/en/articles/fresh-start-in-new-year.html to read more about taking each of these habits to a better level for your life.

Several years ago, I decided to do something different in the new year and chose to spend some of my volunteer time getting this Forester to you each month. Thanks to the many Forest Park Volunteers who help me getting this done from Catherine who figures out the ads all the way to the 2 Lindas who help set up the stuffing and get this publication delivered to households each month. Remember you too are a neighbor in Forest Park. Check your Habits this year and see if you can find a small amount of time to volunteer to Forest Park Civic Association or some other organization that is important to you. I wish everyone in Forest Park a Healthy and Successful 2019. Hope to see you at a FPCA event soon!

- Rita Woeste, FPCA Editor

What's Up at Epworth?

The vision of Epworth is to follow the example of Christ by welcoming, nurturing and serving all people with love.

Happy New Year to all our Northland friends and neighbors. Epworth United Methodist Church is excited to begin a bright, shiny and joyful busy new year in worship and service to our community and beyond.

2019 will offer not only worship services but small group studies, community outreach and a multitude of mission events at Epworth. Here are just a few of things that Epworth offers to folks in the Forest Park and North Columbus Neighborhoods.

Sundays are a day of worship and praise beginning with our worship service starting at 10:30 a.m. with Pastor Jennifer Casto preaching. Sunday School classes for men and women precede the worship service at 9 a.m. in rooms #9 and #10. The Cultivating Christian Life small study group meets at 6 p.m. on Sunday evenings in room #9.

Everyone is certainly welcome no matter where you may be in your Christian journey. The Book Club meets on the second Sunday of each month at 9 a.m. in room #8. Presently, this group is reading "A Quilt for Christmas" by Sandra Dallas. She teaches others the importance of loving our enemies.

Our food pantry is open Monday through Thursday having served 493 families/ 1,165 neighbors thru November 2018. Referrals are accepted thru Hands on Central Ohio by calling 211. Families are given a food supply for three days. Also twelve Thanksgiving baskets were distributed.

Tuesday brings a new ministry to Epworth and that is Moms2B. In fact, Epworth and Moms2B recently celebrated their first anniversary of this partnership. Moms2B is a weekly free program designed to help pregnant moms have healthy pregnancies and deliver healthy, full term babies. At Moms2B they promise to empower you to accomplish your goals and also educate you on important topics related to pregnancy and parenting while connecting you to valuable community resources. Moms2B meets at Epworth on Tuesdays at 1 p.m. Come and enjoy a 2 hour program with a snack and a healthy full meal provided. Have questions? Call Moms2B at 614-292-1605 or via email at Moms2B@osumc.edu.

Wednesday evenings brings AA meetings at 7 p.m. in the multipurpose room. AA also meets on Saturday mornings at 10 a.m. in room #10.

A Bible study is held on Wednesday evenings at 7 p.m. Pastor Jennifer leads this group which meets in room #9. This is a lively discussion about different books of the Bible.
